Re: Notice to Cease and Desist Communications re Contra Costa County Public Works Department regarding Aztec

Dear Mr. Ryle:

Please be advised this firm has been retained by Aztec Constructors and Aztec Consultants (collectively referred to as “Aztec”) with respect to the above-captioned matter.

It has come to our attention that you have sent correspondence to the Contra Costa County Public Works Department (“Contra Costa County”) regarding a Notice of Assignment of Receivables and Demand for Disclosure on or around July 1, 2025. In the correspondence, you have claimed a legal right against all current and future payments made to Aztec Constructors, Inc., and a demand that all future payments be redirected from Aztec to you, as a representative of The Travis Private Bank Estate & Trust (“Travis Ryle Bank”). A true and correct copy of the County’s response letter to your correspondence has been attached herein as “Exhibit A.” Furthermore, you have sent unwarranted communications to E. Frank Duarte regarding Aztec and its affiliated businesses.

Please be advised that this letter has been served as notice that your unwarranted communications with Contra Costa County and misrepresentations regarding your affiliations with Aztec and claims of a legal right to current and future payments to Aztec are unauthorized, fraudulent, and made without legal basis. Therefore, you are required to cease and desist all communications with Contra Costa County and from impersonating yourself as an employee, agent, or having any affiliation with Aztec and its businesses.

Please note that your tortious misconduct and improper communications have opened yourself up to serious civil liability. Based on our review of the facts and correspondence, your claim of a legal right to current or future payments due to Aztec constitutes fraud as defined in California Civil Code §§ 1709–1710, and may amount to the unlawful filing of a false instrument in violation of California Penal Code § 115. Furthermore, your actions may give rise to liability under California Business and Professions Code § 17200 (Unfair Competition Law).

You are hereby demanded to cease and desist all further communications and filings with Contra Costa County or any third party that purport to assert rights against Aztec unless you can produce a legally valid basis for doing so.

Be advised that continued fraudulent conduct or improper communications may subject you to civil penalties, injunctive relief, and punitive damages under California Civil Code § 3294, and may also result in a referral to law enforcement for potential criminal investigation.

Aztec will not tolerate any further interference to its businesses and relationships, nor false claims of any legal right against payments made to Aztec or its affiliated businesses. Failure to comply with this directive will force Aztec, affected employees and/or others involved to pursue every legal remedy available, including arrest, prosecution, and/or civil court action.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

ATKINSON, ANDELSON, LOYA, RUUD & ROMO

Re: Notice of Assignment of Receivables and Demand for Disclosure under UCC Article 9

Dear Contra Costa Flood Control District,

The Travis Ryle Private Bank Estate & Trust holds a perfected security interest in the assets of Aztec Constructors, Inc., a California corporation (Entity No. C2362627), established under UCC Financing Statement No. U250155131317 and amended via UCC3 No. U250301621, both filed with the California Secretary of State. This collateral includes all assets, especially accounts receivable and general intangibles.

Under California Commercial Code § 9312.406, all current and future obligations owed by your agency to Aztec Constructors, Inc. are assigned to the Secured Party. Effective immediately, redirect payments as follows:

Payment Instructions

- Paper checks: The Travis Ryle Private Bank Estate & Trust, c/o Travis Ryle, 5570 W Tonto Pl, Golden Valley, AZ 86413. Make checks payable to: The Travis Ryle Private Bank Estate & Trust.

Confirm receipt and direct correspondence or payment inquiries to the contact above. Continued payments to Aztec Constructors, Inc. after this notice will not discharge your obligation and may require recovery actions.

We understand the project involving Aztec Constructors, Inc. is tied to the job site at 2475 Waterbird Way, Martinez, CA 94553. However, this notice applies exclusively to your agency's administrative address listed above.

Demand for Disclosure

This letter formally demands all records related to contracts, invoicing, and payments involving Aztec Constructors, Inc., including:

- Executed contracts or agreements
- Open or paid invoices
- Payment schedules or associated documentation
- Details of affiliated entities, subcontractors, joint ventures, or DBAs connected to Aztec Constructors, Inc.

Failure to comply may result in enforcement actions, including turnover proceedings or injunctive relief, under California Code of Civil Procedure § 708.510.

We appreciate your immediate attention.

Sincerely,

Travis Ryle
